CARBAJAL TAKES OATH AS PRO TEM PRESIDENT

Impressive Ceremony Marks
Another Stage in Mexican History

[Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.]
CITY OF MEXICO, July 16.—The last act in the drama which resulted in the surrender of all power by Dictator Huerta and paved the way for putting a new ruler at the helm of the destinies of Mexico, took place in the chamber of deputies here at 7:20 o'clock last night when the chief justice of the supreme court of Mexico administered the oath which makes Minister Carbajal provisional president of the republic.

HARRY THAW AWARDED INCOME FROM ESTATE

[Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.]
PITTSBURG, Pa., July 16.—Harry Thaw was yesterday awarded by the orphan's court the income from his father's estate, which has been denied him since he was adjudged insane. As a result of the decision Thaw gets $160,773.

Suddenly Pius X appeared in the doorway, clad in white in a cassock of white serge, with a short cape, broad cuffs of white water silk, and a little white skull cap. Round his neck was a gold chain supporting the pectoral cross, and on his right hand was an elaborate and antique ring. It was an apparition of white. The pope's face and hands are pale, with the dead-

YOU'RE BILIOUS AND CONSTIPATED! LIVER IS SLUGGISH—DIME A BOX

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and constipated bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaree tonight will surely straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box will keep your head clear, stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular and make you feel cheerful and bully for months.

Don't forget your children—their little insides need a good, gentle, cleansing, too, occasionally.

ENGINEERS GATHER AT FESTIVE BOARD AT HALEIWA HOTEL

Preparatory to pulling stakes and departing for the mainland, the construction work of the J. G. White Engineering Co. on the Marconi wireless plant at Kahuku having been completed, the engineers who have labored together on this job for many months, celebrated Tuesday night with a sumptuous banquet at Haleiwa hotel.

W. M. Griffiths was the guest of honor of his co-workers and a most enjoyable evening was spent. Within the next few weeks it is probable that their profession will take the corps of engineers maintained by the construction company to different parts of the world and it may be years before they cross one another's trail again, consequently the friendships that have sprung up during almost two years' close association will be torn asunder with but little ceremony.

The gathering Tuesday night was held for the reason that Mr. Griffiths will precede his comrades by a few days and it was their desire to wish him a fitting "Aloha."

Those present were: W. M. Griffiths, R. C. Cormack, C. C. Clarke, H. E. Clemens, C. A. Martin, W. F. Hoey, W. L. Johnson and J. Edward Lyons.

White paleness of paper and the hair protruding from beneath his small white cap is white as ashes, not all very. He walks very slowly with little steps, and his gait is the gait of a little child. But his manner is not the manner of an old man. It is the manner of one in frail health. When he pronounced the papal benediction and afterward made a little speech of encouragement to a couple of women teachers in charge of some orphans his voice, though low, was firm and resonant.

As he turned to give the blessing the sunshine pouring in through the high window threw his face in shadow so as to hide from me the color of his eyes, but not the expression of great gentleness which rests on his pale, frail face like moonlight on the mountains. The benediction spoken the teachers went into the seventh heaven of religious fervor by the gracious words he had found for them and their work. Pius X turned once more and with his gentle gaze slowly disappeared down the adjacent gallery, a frail white figure in a framework of purple and scarlet and gold.—Valentine Williams in London Daily Mail.

PEACE NOW IN SIGHT FOR WAR- RIDDEN COUNTRY

[Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.]
WASHINGTON, July 16.—News of Huerta's resignation has been hailed in official Washington circles as the first practical step toward a quick solution of the Mexican problem.

It is understood that Provisional President Carbajal will hold office only until satisfactory arrangements can be made for the entry of General Carranza and the Constitutional forces into the City of Mexico.

It is understood that the temporary ruler of the republic is anxious first that general amnesty be declared, conserving the lives as well as the property of those who supported Huerta.

After this proposed peaceful entry of the Constitutionalists into the capital, arrangements as to the disposition of the Federal troops and officers who have been supporting the government will be negotiated.

QUICK RESULTS ASTONISH HONOLULU

There is astonishment in Honolulu at the QUICK results received from simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-I-ka, the remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis. This simple mixture drains such great amounts of foul matter from the body that a SINGLE DOSE relieves constipation, sour stomach and gas on the stomach almost IMMEDIATELY. The speedy action of Adler-I-ka is surprising. The Hollister Drug Company—advertisement.

SITUATION IS INTOLERABLE, SAYS JURIST

Judge Cooper, on Mainland,
Tells of Condition in Courts
Here—Politics Blamed

Because of the neglect or delay for political reasons of President Wilson and Attorney-General McReynolds in filling vacancies as commissions expire, the Territory of Hawaii has at the present time but one legally qualified circuit judge in place of the seven it is entitled to, in the opinion of Judge Henry E. Cooper, who retired last March from the territorial bench, says the San Francisco Chronicle.

Judge Cooper arrived here on the steamship Manchuria and is stopping at the Hotel Stewart.

In discussing the judicial situation in the Territory of Hawaii, Judge Cooper said last night that six judges are now serving, but the commissions of all but one have expired, most of them as much as a year ago. Judge Cooper's commission expired on March 6th last. Holding the opinion that he could not legally sit in a case in the Territory without a commission in force, Cooper declined to serve longer. The only notice he received, he says, is that his pay would stop if he refused to continue in office.

Doing Local Politics.
An attempt to control local Hawaiian politics is given by Cooper as the best reason known for thus holding up the appointment of territorial judges by the administration at Washington. It is believed that the offices are held open for the benefit of Democratic politicians who are seeking bigger jobs, but who are keeping control of the disposition of the judges in order to use them as pawns in the game.

On account of this condition, legal business in the Territory is tied up and uncertain, according to Judge Cooper. The Bar Association of Honolulu has memorialized the Attorney-General asking him to put an end to the situation, but without result.

"The situation is intolerable," said Judge Cooper. "It is without precedent and constitutes an audacious attack upon the independence of the judiciary."

"When vacancies in the judiciary have occurred through death or resignation it has been usual for the president to appoint a man of his own political faith, but it is entirely without precedent to attempt to displace good men on the bench because of politics."

"The Bar Association of Honolulu has recommended the reappointment of all the judges whose commissions have expired, with one exception, but no action has come."

"In the first circuit the commission of Judge W. L. Whitney expired a year ago, that of Judge W. J. Robinson on March 5, this year, and my own on the following day. In the second circuit the commissions of Judge Parsons, Judge Mathewman, and Judge Selden B. Kingsbury expired a year ago. Judge C. H. Dickey is the only

VILLA PEEVED BECAUSE HUERTA HAS ESCAPED

[Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.]
JUAREZ, Mexico, July 16.—"We would have preferred that Senor Huerta had remained in the City of Mexico until we could have placed our hands on him," was the comment of General Villa of the Constitutional forces when he learned last night that the Dictator against whose rule he has been fighting had resigned and was fleeing from Mexico.

one on the bench whose commission is still in force.

"I do not believe a territorial judge is legally qualified to sit after his commission has expired. The attorney-general holds that he is a judge de facto and de jure until his successor has qualified. I do not agree, and, therefore, I refused to sit in a murder case which came to my court just before the expiration of my term, fearing that if I did it might raise a point of jurisdiction that would keep the case in court for years."

Judge Cooper's Surmise.
"President Wilson and the attorney-general are responsible. I do not know the exact reasons for holding up the appointments, but I surmise that they are concerned with an attempt to control the political situation. At any rate, it is an intolerable condition and wholly without justification."

Judge Cooper is one of the foremost men in the affairs of the island territory. He was the head of the revolutionary committee which overthrew the monarchy in 1893, minister of foreign affairs under the republic and acting president in 1898, besides holding many other offices both before and after Hawaii became a part of the United States.

Although he deposed a monarch, Judge Cooper has become one himself. He is the owner of a group of fifty-two islands a thousand miles south of Honolulu, with countless coconut trees, a pearl fishery and deposits of phosphate.

OUTDOOR CIRCLE IS BRIGHTENING GROUNDS AROUND THE CAPITOL

The restoration of sidewalks, avenues, lawns and shrubbery in the palace grounds now is being undertaken under the direction of the Outdoor Circle, and already the work is progressing at a rate which is proving most satisfactory to both the members of the Circle and the public. At a recent entertainment on the roof garden of the Young hotel, the Circle raised $650, all of which is to be expended for this work, and another entertainment, planned for the near future, is expected to bring forth funds with which the Circle will remove the iron fence now surrounding the capitol grounds.

STEAMER LINES THROUGH CANAL BEING PLANNED

[Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.]
NEW YORK, July 16.—Passenger and freight steamer service between New York and San Francisco, through the Panama canal, will be established early in 1915 by the International Mercantile Marine Company.

The steamships Finland and Kroonland now of the Red Star Line, will be put on the Panama-Pacific route. The contemplated sailings, according to announcement made today, will be once every three weeks. Sixteen days will be required to make the journey. En route the steamers will call either at San Diego or Los Angeles.

HUERTA AND WAR MINISTER FLEE TO COAST

Exiles Will Join Their Families on Board Dutch Warship

[Associated Press by Fed. Wireless.]
CITY OF MEXICO, July 16.—The members of the chamber of deputies and the senate in joint session in the chamber of deputies here late yesterday afternoon accepted the resignation of Victoriano Huerta as provisional president of Mexico, a position he has held since the death of Francisco Madero February 24, 1913. The action was approved by a vote of 121 to 17.

Huerta and his minister of war, General Blanquet, the one man he has seemed to trust above all others, left the capital under cover of darkness last night and boarded a train on the Mexican railway a few miles outside of the city. It is now thought they are headed for Puerto Mexico.

Senora Huerta and family together with the wife and family of Blanquet, who left under guard of two heavy cordons of troops, are now believed to be nearing Puerto Mexico where they will be met by the deposed leaders.

It is now understood here that the Dutch steamer Kortenaar is waiting to take the fugitives aboard at Puerto Mexico to convey them to some European port, probably France.
